Support Procedures

Receiving Support-

Customer, or persons authorized by Customer, should call 1-877-877-7241 to receive support. An i³ International technician will ask for Customer’s order number, relevant hardware and software brands, and model or version/serial numbers. To receive Services, Customer must confirm that Customer (a) has full access to the hardware and/or software that is the basis of the problem, and (b) has completed a back-up of any software or data that may be impacted by the Supported Product. i³ Technical ONLY support dealers and end-users and products that are under warranty. A service fee applies if the product is not under warranty by i³ International.

Service Availability - i³ International will use commercially reasonable efforts to keep support available 8:30 AM to 8:00 PM EST from Monday to Friday and 1 hour after on Saturday and Sunday (9AM – 6PM EST). No service is available during Canada’s statutory holidays.

Serial Number -

Customer must maintain the confidentiality of the serial number of the product in connection with these Services. i³ International is not responsible for unauthorized use of a Customer's serial number.

Copying of Files - i³ International is not permitted by law to copy pirated or copyrighted materials. Customer acknowledges that Customer owns the copyright or has a license to make copies to all of the files on their system and that Customer does not have any files on their system which would cause i³ International to be liable for copyright infringement if those files were copied by i³ International as part of the Services, including but not limited to, music files, motion picture files or photographic files that are subject to copyright restrictions. Customer accepts responsibility for, and agrees to indemnify and hold i³ International harmless from, any and all liability, damages, claims or proceedings arising out of Customer's failure to remove any such files from their system prior to calling i³ International for Services.

Third Party Warranty

Third-party software and peripheral products are covered by the warranties provided by the original manufacturer or the seller of the product. Third party warranties may vary from product to product. Customer should consult the applicable product documentation for specific warranty information.

Commercially Reasonable Limits to Scope of Service -

In the course of providing the Services, i³ International may determine that the issue is beyond the scope of the Services. i³ International may use commercially reasonable efforts to refer Customer to the appropriate alternative resource; however, i³ International will not transfer Customer directly to an alternate resource. Customer acknowledges that i³ International may not be able to solve Customer's particular problem.

Cancellation -

If it is a paid service, i³ International, at its discretion, may terminate Services with 30 days notice to Customer, in which case, Customer will be entitled to a refund subject to the terms and conditions of this agreement. i³ International reserves the right to immediately suspend or terminate Services if i³ International, in its sole discretion, determines that Services are being misused and/or Customer has not complied with the terms and conditions of this agreement.

Not Transferable -

The Services are not transferable. Customer may not use the Services in connection with a service bureau or any other distributing or sharing arrangement, on behalf of any third parties or with respect to any hardware or software not personally owned by the Customer.
